Administration, Faculty, & Staff

To the Class of 2002:

Congratulations to all of the students of our senior class for your collective accomplishments. You have worked extraordinarily hard over the past four years at D-R, both in and out of the classroom. Your academic success has been nicely complemented by your achievements in the wide variety of extracurricular activities you have pursued. As your Superintendent of Schools, I wish you continued success in your future endeavors, and I want you to know how proud I am of you as excellent representatives of the fine tradition of Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School.

Dr. Francis J. Connor
Superintendent of Schools

To the Class of 2002:

As another class of seniors is about to join the rolls of those who call themselves graduates of D-R, please know that we have provided them with the opportunity to receive a quality education. What they did with that opportunity will now be evaluated by others. It will soon be known whether they have taken advantage of the academic/vocational opportunities given to them at this high school by their performance in college, technical school, or on the job.

Success does not begin until a person decides he or she wants to be successful. For those of you who have worked hard, continue to do so. For those of you who haven't, it's still not too late.

Best of luck to all of you and continue to make us proud.

Mr. Trent R. Danella
Principal

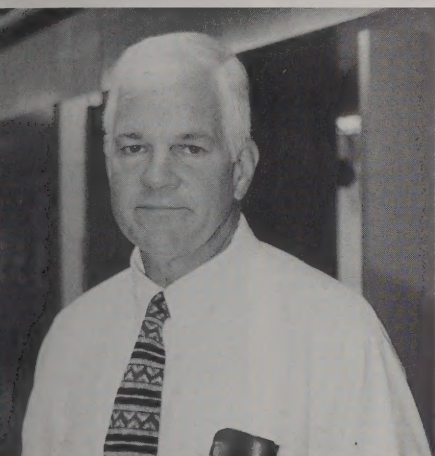

To the Class of 2002:

Congratulations to the Class of 2002. I hope that you have enjoyed your four years at Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School as much as we have enjoyed having you with us. Academically and athletically, you have brought honor to your school and, most importantly, to yourselves and to your families. I hope that the future is happy and fruitful for all of you. Take each day and live it to the fullest.

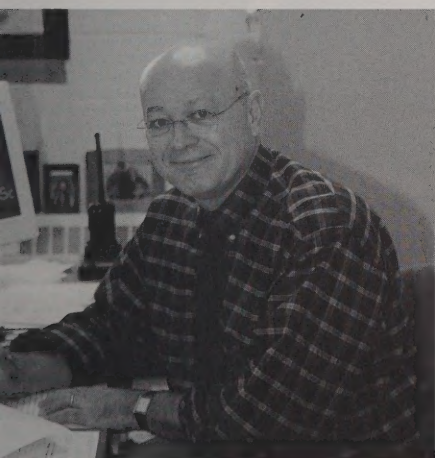

Mr. Paul Giannakoulis
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2002:

You are an incredibly talented class and you possess unlimited potential. Use those talents and that potential to the fullest and help to make our world a better place. What you have accomplished at D-R is really just the beginning. There are many more challenges in store for you in the future. I will always have very fond memories of your class and want to take this opportunity to wish all of you continued success and good fortune. Set your goals high and follow your dreams. Good luck!

Mr. Glen Field
Assistant Principal

To the Class of 2002:

Four years ago, you came to D-R and became one of its students, a member of the Class of 2002. Sometimes you were referred to as a freshman, sometimes a sophomore, then a junior, and most recently, a senior. But these titles no longer apply. With the achievement of a high school diploma, you now take on the status of a graduate of this institution. For that achievement, you are to be congratulated. Now comes the best part of this whole adventure: what you have learned up to this point is just the beginning of a lifelong experience. Take hold of the opportunities that are before you and settle for nothing less than excellence in all that you do. My very best wishes to you, the graduates of the Class of 2002.

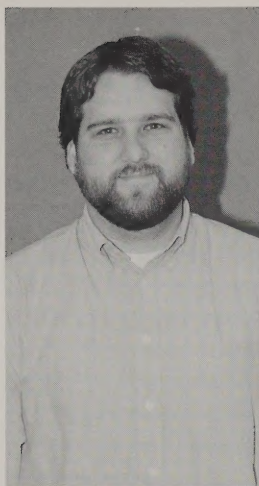

Mr. F. Leon Sibielski
Director of Guidance

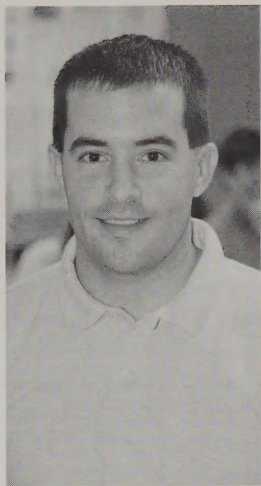

To the Class of 2002:

Congratulations to the Class of 2002. Your graduation from D-R is a significant point in your life. Be proud of your work and accomplishments as you prepare to enter the next step of your education. Your need to learn will continue whether it is through college, military service, or the work force. Today's key to success is to be a lifelong learner. This next step will provide an opportunity for more independence. However, it will require you to assume more responsibility and self-motivation. Hard work and a positive attitude will continue to lead to success. Build upon the strong foundation that you have acquired at D-R. Have dreams and goals to work toward and take time to reflect on your hard work.

Video Club

The D-R Video Club was established to provide students with out-of-class opportunities to work with state of the art video and audio equipment. During the course of a school year, many students utilize the studio facilities to produce videotapes for other classes, departments, and school programs; for their families; or for their own personal interests.

Yearbook

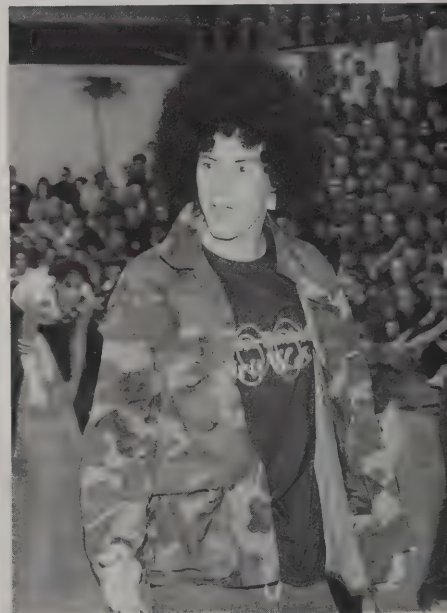

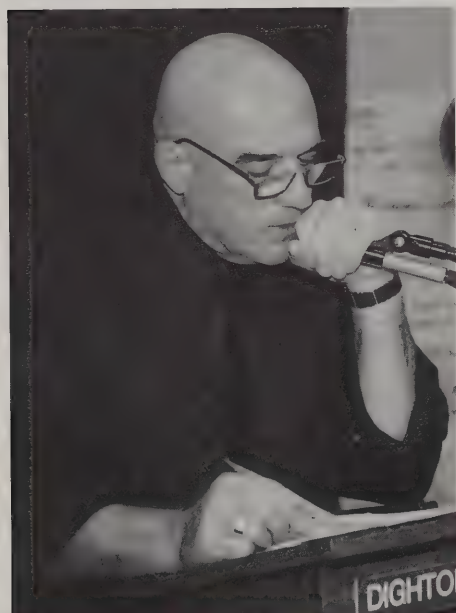

First Row: Lindsay Cabrera, Sasha Reichenberg, Kate Stafford (ed.), Kathryn Rose, Christine Haskell, Beth Downs

Second Row: Mr. Harwood, Elizabeth McPartland, Laura Stafford, Caroline McKeon, Becky Lambe, Ashlee Waller

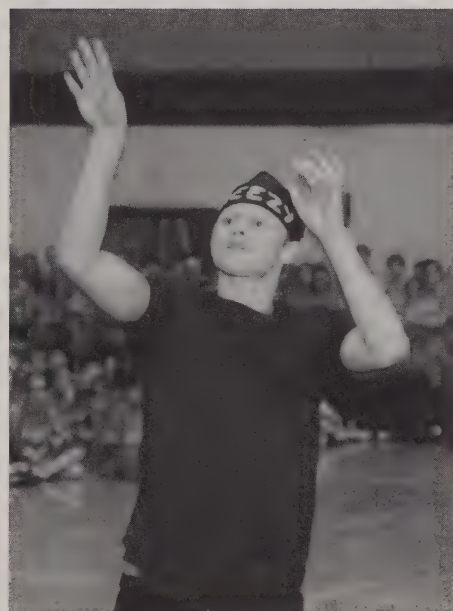

Once again the yearbook staff has worked conscientiously to produce a successful publication. Over the course of the year, the group has consistently put a great deal of effort into designing pages, cropping pictures, proofreading text, and all the other tasks associated with producing the yearbook. Work on the yearbook lasted nearly the entire school year. Many new innovations took effect this year, with the most noticeable being the revised senior section's "interpolated" candid shots and the captioned candids that appear at the end of the book.. We also decided to go ahead with a plan that allows seniors to receive an "autograph book" before the end of the school year; this book allows students to collect signatures and messages from friends and can be stuck into the yearbook which students receive at the end of the summer.

Special thanks to our very own Yearbook Entertainer, the always-diligent Kathryn Rose; underclass editor Laura Stafford; and hardworking, up-and-coming sophomores Caroline McKeon and Becky Lambe. To the seniors, good luck after graduation; to the underclassmen, good luck with next year's book.

Season Summary

This year's Golf Team accomplished its major goal by regaining the SCC title it lost last year to Old Rochester. Our six seniors, Ian McPherson, Steve Field, Read Knowles, Scott Wade, Ricky Floor, and Todd Torres were instrumental in our winning our fifth league championship in six years. With a solid group of underclassmen returning next season, our team's future continues to look very promising.

Captains Gabrielle Charbonneau and Kathryn Rose, the dynamic duo, lead the team, followed by a talented pack of young runners. Season Summary

The 2001 boys' cross-country season was a bona fide success. The team, led by senior captains Steve Sypole and Frankie Joyce, cruised to an undefeated record, manhandling every opponent they faced. Coach David Marsden returned from retirement to guide the seniors that he had coached as freshmen, and his almost preternatural wisdom and inspirational talks paved the way to victory.

Paul Geisser, Steve Sypole, and Frankie Joyce also set conference history by taking first, second, and third places in the conference meet. All of these accomplishments combined to make this cross-country season one for the annals of history.

Season Summary

The varsity football team finished the season with an 8-2-1 record and a second-place S.C.C. finish. The team played inspired football all year, winning three games with come-from-behind victories. The team was led by All-S.C.C. players Ethan Plante at fullback, Kip Aussant at guard, and Rickey Dias at defensive back. The highlight of the season was a thrilling last-second win over Wareham, when Zane Fyfe scored the winning touchdown with twelve seconds left on the clock. A close second for excitement was a come-from-behind tie against Old Rochester with Ethan Plante scoring the tying touchdown and two point conversion with twenty-seven seconds on the clock. The 2001 Falcon football team will be remembered as a team that never gave up.

Season Summary

The boys' varsity basketball team had a very successful season. An excellent overall record qualified the team for State Tournament play. The team's league record was good enough for third place and represented the Falcons' best S.C.C. finish ever.

Season Summary

In all, this was a very successful season for boys' winter track. The team trained hard and dominated the S.C.C., sweeping every conference event. Success continued at the State level, finishing in the top ten at the Class C Meet and qualifying several runners for All-State. This year's team benefited from outstanding weather which allowed for easier outdoor training. Several holes will be left by the graduation of an outstanding senior class, whose members will be missed next year. However, next year's team promises to continue the success we had in the 2001-2002 season.

SEASON SUMMARY

Despite graduating the nucleus of last year's South Sectional semi-finalist team, the baseball team earned its seventh title in eight years with an impressive 14-2 mark, 18-2 overall.

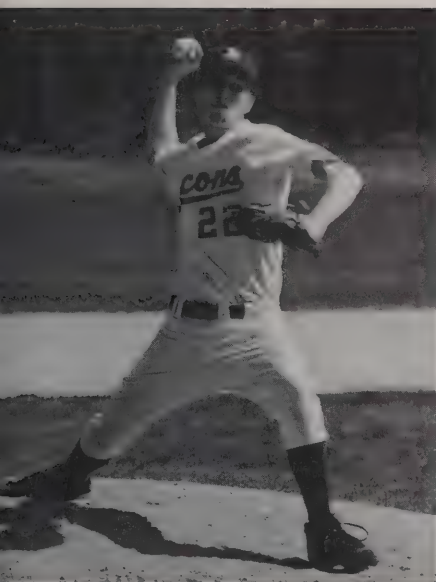

All-S.C.C. catcher Greg Allen led the attack, batting .422 with 6 HR and 30 RBI. All-S.C.C. second baseman captain Mike Daniel (.366, 17RBI, 19 S.B.) and captain Chris Thompson (.302) anchored a solid infield along with Ricky Floor (.348). Read Knowles (.340), Adam Hart (.314), and Ryan Carignan (.471) who roamed the outfield.

An All-S.C.C. selection, Jay Dowling (8-0, 2.98) led a revamped pitching staff along with Barrett Cybulski (6-0, 3.00, 2 saves), Ryan Carignan (2.10, 1-0, 4 saves), Ryan Sherman (3-2, 2.44) and Justin Mitchell (2.33) to an impressive 2.70 team ERA and an opponents' batting average of .244.

In state tournament play, the Falcons defeated Medfield 12-6 in the first round. Read Knowles led a 15-hit attack with 3 hits and 3 RBI. In the quarterfinals, Ross Pemmerl's two run, bases-loaded single with two outs in the bottom of the seventh gave the Falcons a dramatic 3-2 win over Martha's Vineyard. Scituate ended the Falcon's season with a hard-fought 4-3 win in the sectional semi-finals.

Season Summary

The record this year - 9-7 overall and 9-5 in the league - did not reflect how close the team was in many of its matches. Once again the team made the state tournament and each member continues to improve his tennis skills. We say thanks to the seniors for their contribution over the years that they played.

Season Summary

Co-captains Courtney Keegan and Liz Downing were the only returning starters for the 2002 Falcons. Besides the play and leadership of these two seniors, the doubles team of Charlene March and Kristen McKeon finished the season strong. Junior Lindsay White, sophomore Carolyn Chmielewski, and freshman Lisa Therisod rounded out the starting lineup. An improving group of freshmen and sophomores should help the Lady Falcons better their 7-9 record and return to playoff contention.

Closing Remarks
Mr. Danella, Principal

A Final Word From the Editor...

To the Class of 2002,

By the time anyone reads this letter, it will be August - time at last for all of us to abandon the last vestiges of our high school existence and begin our lives as young adults. No doubt you will all have been inundated with advice since our high school classes closed for the last time - between the speeches given at graduation and the parental admonitions given all summer long, that advice is probably sitting in your brain in one big undifferentiated mass.

You know the type of advice I'm thinking of - the type that's always offered whenever one of life's milestones passes by. Live life to the fullest. Cherish the memories you've made. Be careful. Take risks. Follow the road less traveled. Be yourself. Try something new. Get ready to go out on your own.

I'm very sorry to have to add my voice to the growing chorus, but as a fellow graduate, I have to say a few words to the class I've grown up with - to the people who have all, in their own ways, helped to shape my life. I have only two short suggestions, and - though I suspect they will be easier to dispense than to follow - I believe they are worthwhile.

First - don't be afraid to embrace the future with open arms. Everyone feels a bit of nostalgia when the end of an era arrives, but don't let your love of the past blinker your vision when you look toward the future. And second - don't be afraid to embrace the past either. Don't let your eagerness for progress mar your relationships with those who have grown and changed along with you these past four years. Keep in touch with your friends, call your parents, write to your relatives - and remember that, wherever you go, Dighton-Rehoboth will always be a part of you.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation for everyone who helped to put this yearbook together despite the occasional frustration and setback. Thanks to the school's administration, faculty, staff, and coaches for all the material and information they provided. Thanks to Mr. Harwood for his hard work as yearbook advisor. Thanks to the yearbook staff - especially Kathryn Rose, Laura Stafford, Caroline McKeon, and Becky Lambe - for doing all the boring work. Thanks to the senior class for being so talented and photogenic. In short, thanks to everyone who made this book possible.

Good Luck Class of 2002!

Sincerely,

Kate Stafford, Editor-in-Chief
